

seven
MILE ROAD

LITURGY & SONGS - November 17, 2019

Reflection Quote:

“If we will be quiet and ready enough, we shall find compensation in every disappointment.”

— Henry David Thoreau

Call to Worship:

Leader: O Supreme Moving Being, You give and take away. As the Author of life, Your will is immovable and Your righteousness unshakeable. There is none like You in all the world. You are holy, mighty, always true.

All: Though we cannot grasp the whole of who You are and all that You're doing, we worship You, O God of all.

Confession of Sin:

Leader: God, I fill my weekends with an endless stream of celebrations. All the days in-between are busied with anticipation for the next event of fun and laughter. I've trained my mind to avoid the harsh realities of hurt and sadness. I've trained it well. Though the days of my life are numbered, I live with a naive perspective that death is a dreary, distant foe. Forgive me for trading a sober understanding of this life for frivolities that keep me occupied.

Assurance of Pardon:

All: Come behold the wondrous mystery, Christ the Lord upon the tree. Instead of us ruined sinners, hung the Lamb in victory. See the price of our redemption, see the Father's plan unfold. Jesus was forsaken that we might be forgiven. But no grave could hope to restrain Him, praise the Lord — He is alive! What a foretaste of deliverance, how unwavering our hope. Christ in power resurrected, as we will be when He comes!

Benediction:

Let love be genuine. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another.

<Based on Romans 12:9-16>

SONGS

How Deep The Father's Love For Us
Let Us Praise The One
It Is Well
All The Poor And Powerless
Let Us Praise The One