

LITURGY & SONGS – September 13th, 2020

Call to Worship:

Leader: Come now, you who are weary and worn, Come and be renewed. And you who are empty and spent, Come and be filled! For the Lord our God is with us, come, Let us worship Him forever! (Based on Matthew 1 & Matthew 11)

Confession of Sin:

All: God of mercy, we confess that we are often full of fear in the face of opposition. Forgive us for the times we are distracted by uncertainty and controversy. Help us to stay focused on what you have called us to. Help us to trust in your Word and your power. O God of mercy, fill us with courage and strength! (Based on Nehemiah 6)

Assurance of Pardon:

Leader: Do not be afraid, for the Lord has done what we could not. King Jesus was not distracted one step from calvary, where He bled and died for our sins! There, it was finished, once and for all. And He has risen from the grave, putting to shame the powers and principalities of this world. Glory be to the God who lives! (Based on Nehemiah 6, John 19, Hebrews 10, Colossians 2)

Benediction:

Leader: Now may the Lord of hosts be with you, and His favor a shield around you. And may the Lord fill you with all courage and strength to see His kingdom come. To God be the glory and honor, forever and ever, amen! (Based on Psalm 5)

SONGS

Faithful to the End
How Great Thou Art
O Come To The Alter
From The Dead
Grace Alone