

LITURGY & SONGS – November 1st, 2020

Call to Worship:

Leader: Where can we run from the presence of God? Where can we flee from his spirit? He sits enthroned in the heavens, his eyes are on the depths. He surrounds his beloved, and in him we are secure. Let us praise the one who formed us. Woven by his hands, made alive by his breath. Let us praise the one who knows our innermost being! <Based on Psalm 139>

Confession of Sin:

All: Father, I have made an idol of my opinions. I have sown seeds of disunity by passing judgement on those who think differently than me. I have allowed disagreement to produce conflict, rather than maturity. Father, fill my heart with compassion. Show me how to love, even as you have loved me!
<Based on Romans 14>

Assurance of Pardon:

Leader: Beloved, Jesus Christ has risen from the dead! We have been washed by the blood of the lamb. He has made us a new creation, a people of God, set apart for his purpose. We were once dead in our trespasses, walking in darkness, but now we are alive together in him- ransomed into the kingdom of light. People of God, rejoice!
<Based on Romans 14, Ephesians 2, & 2 Corinthians 5>

Benediction:

Leader: May the God of endurance and encouragement grant us to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together we may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let us welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God. Amen!
<Based on Romans 15:5-7>
